

AHKS Meeting Participation Policy Disclaimer

The American Association of Hip and Knee Surgeons (AAHKS) educational meetings bring together public health professionals and other participants to share the latest research and information, learn, network and engage with their peers. The opinions, statements, presentations, data, images, videos, documents and other information expressed or otherwise shared by presenters or other participants at the meetings are for informational purposes only. The views and opinions expressed by presenters are not those of AAHKS, unless expressly indicated otherwise. Neither AAHKS, nor its Board or council members, directors, officers, employees, or agents shall be responsible for the accuracy, quality or reliability of any of the materials presented, or liable for any incidental, special, consequential damages or other arising therefrom.

By attending AAHKS educational meetings, each participant consents to being filmed, photographed and recorded during and in connection with the meetings and consent to the use or publication of such recordings in connection with any promotional, educational or professional purposes. Each participant releases AAHKS and its Board or council members, directors, officers, employees, or agents from any and all liability arising from the recordings or their uses, including for infringement of proprietary rights, invasion of privacy, defamation or any other cause of action, and waives any right to inspect or approve such recordings and any and all rights to payment of royalties in connection therewith.

AAHKS educational meetings are harassment-free conferences for everyone regardless of gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, age or religion. Conference participants who display inappropriate behavior or create a disturbance or safety hazard are prohibited inside any meeting facility and will be asked to leave the meeting. If you are being harassed or notice an act of harassment, contact a conference staff member immediately.

AAHKS shall not be responsible for any defamatory, offensive, or illegal conduct of meeting participants, and shall not be held liable for personal injury, property damage, theft or damage of any kind suffered by the participants at or in connection with the meeting.

By registering for and attending AAHKS educational meetings, each participant acknowledges that it has read this Disclaimer, and expressly releases AAHKS and its Board or council members, directors, officers, employees, or agents from any and all liability in connection with such meetings as provided herein.

Event Photography and Video/Audio Recording Release

Any person who attends AAHKS educational meetings grants permission to AAHKS, its employees and agents (collectively "AAHKS") to record his or her visual/audio images, including but not limited to, photographs, digital images, voices, sound or video recordings, audio clips, or accompanying written descriptions, and, without notifying such person, to use his or her name and such images for any purpose of AAHKS, including advertisements for AAHKS and its programs, in any media or format including web-based, film or in print.
